THE JOURNEY THROUGH EDITING

SUTRADHAAR

With every new session comes a renewed spirit, fresh aspirations, and a sense of beginning once again. This issue of our magazine stands as a testimony to that very spirit, marking not only the start of another academic year but also our collective journey into a new chapter of creativity and expression. Each edition of SRIVAANI is more than just a collection of pages- it is a reflection of the ideas, voices, and imaginations that define us. With new energy, enthusiasm, and determination, we have woven together experiences, thoughts, and expressions that celebrate both continuity and change. This issue is not merely a publication but a bridge connecting the past with the future, the learned with the aspiring, and the experienced with the curious. It embodies the vibrancy of our institution, the dynamism of its people, and the spirit of exploration that guides us forward. As we turn these pages, we celebrate not only achievements but also the promise of greater possibilities ahead. May this new journey inspire us to create, to question, and to grow together with the same passion that has always been the essence of Srinath University.

Glamour Meets Tradition at ORIENTATION DAY

The Orientation Day of Srinath University turned into a dazzling celebration as students lit up the XLRI Auditorium with a spectacular Indo-Western themed ramp walk. Blending cultural elegance with modern flair, participants showcased stunning outfits that reflected creativity, confidence, and charisma. Each step on the ramp radiated glamour, leaving the audience spellbound and cheering with excitement. The show was not only a feast of fashion but also a symbol of youthful energy and talent. With their vibrant presence, the students made Orientation Day truly unforgettable, setting the tone for a year filled with enthusiasm and brilliance.

The event also highlighted the university's commitment to nurturing not just academic excellence but also cultural expression and personality development. It provided students with a platform to express themselves, build confidence, and celebrate diversity through style. The dazzling ramp walk was indeed a perfect beginning to an inspiring academic journey ahead.

Sankalp: Naye Sapne, Naye Aagaaz

The beginning of a new academic session at Srinath University is not merely an entry into higher education but a step into a journey of transformation. At Shankhnaad 2025, the Orientation Programme was marked by a moment of profound significance the Oath-Taking Ceremony, where every newly admitted student pledged to uphold the ideals and values of the University.

The oath instills in students the importance of integrity, respect, and commitment. It binds them to honesty in academics, respect for their teachers and peers, discipline in their conduct, and a lifelong dedication to the pursuit of knowledge. By pledging to uphold these values, the students become active partners in carrying forward the vision and mission of Srinath University.

The unison of voices during the oath-taking at Shankhnaad 2025 created an electrifying atmosphere of hope and determination. It was not just an academic ritual but a declaration of purpose that the students of Srinath University will walk the path of knowledge with honesty, responsibility, and courage, preparing themselves to become torchbearers of change. The Oath-Taking Ceremony thus stands as a cornerstone of the Orientation Programme a bridge between aspiration and action, between learning and living, and between self and society.

Prof. (Dr.) S. N. Singh
(Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor)

I heartily congratulate Dr. Animesh Mandal on the successful publication of his scholarly chapter. At Srinath University, we take immense pride in nurturing academic excellence and fostering innovative thinking. Dr. Mandal's research exemplifies these values and stands as a model for our academic community.

Dr. Bhavya Bhushan
Associate Dean, Academics

I extend my sincere appreciation to Dr. Animesh Mandal on the successful publication of his research. This achievement highlights his dedication to scholarly excellence and his forward-thinking approach to sustainable and data-driven supply chains. At Srinath University, we are proud to support researchers like Dr. Mandal who contribute meaningfully to academic and industrial innovation. Wishing him continued growth and success in his research journey.

Dr. Shailesh Sarangi
Dean Research

I extend my sincere congratulations to Dr. Animesh Mandal for the successful publication of his research. His work is a fine example of impactful research that bridges theoretical innovation with practical application in the field of sustainable supply chain management. It is contributions like these that strengthen the research ecosystem of Srinath University. Wishing Dr. Mandal continued excellence in his academic and research pursuits.

Mr. J. Rajesh
Dean, Administration

Heartiest congratulations to Dr. Animesh Mandal on the publication of his insightful research. His contribution reflects a commendable blend of academic depth and practical relevance, addressing critical issues in sustainable supply chain management. Such achievements enhance the academic prestige of Srinath University and motivate our academic community to pursue excellence.

Nurturing Future Leaders : Learning and Development at Srinath University

In today's competitive academic and professional landscape, education goes far beyond textbooks and classrooms. It is about shaping personalities, honing communication, and preparing students to face real-world challenges with confidence. At Srinath University, the Learning and Development (L&D) Department under the visionary leadership of Mrs. Monica Jhington the team stands as a pillar of holistic student growth.

A Vision Beyond Academics

The L&D Department was established with a clear mission: to ensure that students are not only academically sound but also industry-ready. Mrs. Jhington, who heads the department, emphasises that technical knowledge alone cannot guarantee success. "Soft skills, critical thinking, and the right attitude are what truly differentiate an individual in today's dynamic environment," she says.

Empowering Through Skill Development

The department focuses on four core aspects of student development:

- Communication Skills: Training in public speaking, group discussions, and professional writing.
- Aptitude Training: Strengthening logical reasoning, problem-solving, and numerical ability to enhance placement readiness.
- Behavioural Skills: Guiding students to adapt to diverse workplaces with emotional intelligence and resilience.

- Personality Development: Building confidence, leadership qualities, and positive body language to help students stand out. Through interactive workshops, skill-based sessions, and personality enhancement programs, the L&D team ensures that every student finds the right platform to grow beyond academics.

The Team Behind the Transformation

What makes the Learning & Development Department at Srinath University truly effective is its dedicated team of professionals who work tirelessly to transform students from diverse academic backgrounds into future-ready professionals. Their passion, commitment, and strategic guidance are instrumental in equipping students with the right mix of technical skills, aptitude, and soft skills to thrive in today's competitive job market.

- Mrs. Monica Jhington

With years of rich experience in training and development, Mrs. Monica Jhington leads the department with a clear vision and unwavering dedication. Her leadership ensures that the L&D initiatives align with industry standards and evolving recruitment trends. She plays a pivotal role in mentoring both students and faculty, ensuring that learning outcomes are not only met but exceeded. Her ability to identify and nurture talent has been a cornerstone of the department's success.

- Mr. Sumit Kumar
(Aptitude and Behavioural Competency Trainer)

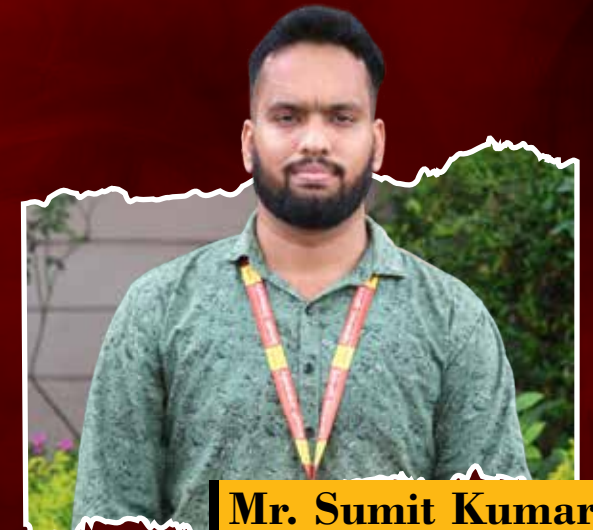

Mr. Kumar brings energy and innovation to every session. His interactive teaching style and practical insights into behavioural competencies help students develop critical life skills, such as emotional intelligence, decision-making, adaptability, and professional etiquette. Beyond just aptitude, he prepares students for the human side of the workplace, making them confident and well-rounded individuals ready to take on real-world challenges.

- Ms. Anjana Mishra
(Aptitude Trainer)

With a sharp focus on analytical and logical reasoning, Ms. Mishra plays a crucial role in enhancing students' problem-solving capabilities. Her sessions on quantitative aptitude, numerical reasoning, and logical puzzles are not only engaging but also directly aligned with placement requirements. Her systematic approach helps students overcome fear of numbers and boosts their confidence in tackling competitive exams and placement tests.

A Unified Mission : Student Success

Together, this team ensures that students of Srinath University are not just academically sound but also emotionally intelligent, professionally prepared, and future-ready. Their integrated approach combines aptitude, attitude, and adaptability empowering students to meet the expectations of recruiters and the demands of a dynamic job market.

The L&D Department remains a cornerstone of student development at Srinath University, continuously evolving to meet the needs of learners and employers alike.

A Student - Centred Approach

Every initiative of the department reflects its student-first philosophy. Whether through counselling sessions, leadership camps, or personal grooming workshops, the focus is always on inclusivity, engagement, and individual growth.

A Unified Mission : Student Success

One of the department's biggest strengths is its industry-driven approach. From mock interviews and resume-building exercises to corporate interaction sessions, the L&D team prepares students to transition smoothly into the professional world. Collaborations with industry experts provide valuable insights into workplace culture, leadership practices, and emerging career opportunities.

Looking Ahead

As Srinath University strengthens its position as a hub of higher learning, the Learning and Development Department continues its mission of shaping well-rounded professionals. With Mrs. Jhington's leadership and the dedication of her team, Mr. Sumit Kumar and Ms. Anjana Mishra, the vision is clear: to create graduates who are not just degree-holders, but leaders, innovators, and change-makers.

Cultural Harmony Through Temples

Rankini Mandir - Jadugora, Jamshedpur

The Living Stone of Jadugoda: Rankini Temple

The Rankini Temple of Jadugoda, nestled between the Dalma Hills and Subarnarekha River, embodies a fusion of tribal faith and Hindu tradition. Rooted in the Bhumij tribe's worship of a black living stone revered as Maa Rankini, an incarnation of Goddess Kali or Durga, the temple carries a rich yet intense history. Once associated with rituals of human sacrifice suppressed by the British in the 19th century, it has transformed into a center of peaceful devotion. Today, the sacred site draws countless pilgrims from Jharkhand, Odisha, and West Bengal, who come to seek Maa Rankini's divine blessings.

Bhuvaneshwari Temple - Telco, Jamshedpur

Jamshedpur Crown Jewel: The Bhuvaneshwari Temple

The Bhuvaneshwari Temple, a serene retreat from Jamshedpur's bustle, was founded in 1978 by Swami Rangarajan after a divine vision of Goddess Bhuvaneshwari. Built in the Dravidian style, its 64-foot Rajagopuram stands tall as a spiritual landmark. Beyond being a sacred shrine, it offers panoramic views of the Steel City and the Dalma Hills, attracting devotees and visitors alike. People climb its steps seeking peace, prayer, and scenic beauty, while photographers find it equally captivating. During Navaratri, the temple radiates devotion with music, rituals, and celebrations of Shakti, making it a cultural, spiritual, and visual crown jewel of Jamshedpur.

Rama Mandir - Bistupur, Jamshedpur

A Divine Abode: Sonari's Sai Baba Temple

Sonari's Sai Baba Temple, near the CH Area petrol pump, is often called Jamshedpur's mini-Shirdi. Conceived in 1998 and completed in 2012 by the Sri Sai Centre, it features lotus-inspired architecture and promotes Sai Baba's message of universal devotion. Managed by a multi-religious committee, it symbolizes harmony across faiths. Beyond worship, the temple is a center of service, hosting poor-feeding programs and celebrating Independence Day with underprivileged children. The sanctum, adorned with flowers and resonating with hymns, offers peace and reflection. Blending spirituality, service, and serenity, the temple stands as a cherished landmark of faith in the Steel City.

Bistupur Timeless Heart: The Ram Mandir

The Ram Mandir in Bistupur, officially Andhra Bhakta Sree Rama Mandiram, has stood as a spiritual landmark since 1919. Initially a shed built by Andhra workers, it grew into a grand temple with Tata Steel's support and blessings from leaders like Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose. Marking its centenary in 2019, the temple unveiled a reconstructed gopuram. Beyond worship, it serves the community through pujas, bhajans, charity, and education. Festivals like Ram Navami, Brahmotsavam, Vaikuntha Ekadashi, and the grand Rath Yatra draw thousands. With its prasadam tradition and service, the temple remains Bistupur's spiritual anchor, uniting faith, culture, and history.

Sample Answer for some Interview Questions

Q 1. Two sample answers for the interview questions - why should I hire you?

Sample Answer 1: For a Professional/Corporate Role (e.g., Marketing, Finance, Admin)

"You should hire me because I bring a combination of proven skills and a strong work ethic that align perfectly with this role. I've successfully managed similar projects in my previous role, where I increased campaign engagement by 25% in just six months. I'm also someone who takes initiative and adapts quickly to challenges — whether it's picking up a new tool or solving a time-sensitive problem. I believe I can bring not just competence, but real results and a collaborative mind set to your team from day one."

Sample Answer 2: For a Technical Role (e.g., Software Developer, Engineer, Data Analyst)

"You should hire me because I have the technical skills and problem-solving mindset that this role demands. In my previous job, I led the redesign of a legacy system that improved performance by 40% and reduced maintenance time by half. Beyond the technical side, I'm a clear communicator and enjoy working in cross-functional teams to build solutions that are not just functional, but scalable. I'm confident I can add value immediately and grow with your team over the long term."

Q 2. Two sample answers for the interview questions - Where do you see yourself after 5 years from now?

Sample Answer 1: Growth-Oriented (For Ambitious Career Progression)

"In five years, I see myself growing into a leadership role where I can take on more responsibilities and contribute at a higher strategic level. I'm eager to continue developing my skills — both technically and in terms of team management — and I hope to be someone who mentors newer team members and helps drive key initiatives forward. Ideally, I'd like to grow with this company and play an active role in its long-term success."

Sample Answer 2: Skill-Focused & Value-Driven (For Team Players or Specialists)

"Five years from now, I see myself as a well-rounded expert in my field, someone who's made a consistent impact through reliable performance and strong collaboration. I'd like to be known as someone people can count on — whether it's solving tough problems, training new team members, or contributing to innovation. I'm committed to continuous learning and would love to grow within a company that values both individual growth and teamwork."

Q 3. Two sample answers for the interview questions - Why did you pursue your respective course?

Sample Answer 1: Passion-Driven

"I chose my course because I've always had a strong interest in how things work, especially in [subject area, e.g., technology/business/science]. From a young age, I enjoyed problem-solving and exploring how systems function, which naturally led me to pursue a degree in [your course]. The course allowed me to deepen my understanding and gave me hands-on experience, which confirmed that I was on the right path. It was the perfect fit for my interests and long-term goals."

Sample Answer 2: Career-Focused

"I pursued this course because it aligned well with my career aspirations. I wanted to build a strong foundation in [mention key subject or field], knowing that it would open doors in industries I was interested in. For example, this course helped me gain practical skills in [specific tools, concepts, or areas], which are highly relevant to the roles I'm applying for now. It was a strategic decision that has prepared me well for the challenges of the professional world."

Learning Beyond Classrooms!

BAJMC Semester V students from the Department of Journalism & Mass Communication at Srinath University took a meaningful step towards impactful storytelling. They visited R P Patel Cheshire Home, Jamshedpur, a shelter for differently-abled and terminally ill individuals, to explore stories and ideas for their upcoming documentary on Ricky. Guided by their professor, students gained hands-on exposure to the production process while interacting with the residents. The visit was more than an academic exercise, it was an emotional journey that revealed resilience, strength, and silent pain hidden behind smiles. Their upcoming documentary aims to bring these powerful human stories to society and inspire compassion.
